M WOMEN'S HOCKEY TEAM WINS LAST GAME
The M women won a hockey game against a picked team by a score of 3-2 Friday. The M women had sent a challenge to a team picked from the class teams. The game was close and hard fought and at the end of the first half the score was 2-1 in favor of the picked team.

HARVARD HASN'T ASKED FOR GAME WITH TIGERS
An enterprising correspondent up in Cambridge, Mass., was responsible for a lot of excitement and many columns of dope in the Missouri Valley conference when he vouchsafed that "Harvard would play some western school next fall, possibly Missouri, Nebraska or Kansas" or a half dozen other schools out here in the "prairies," as they were wont to refer to the home of the Huskers when they journeyed East this fall.

Harvard may play Missouri, and she might meet Kansas, Missouri would probably be glad to play the crimson, but in as far as the local authorities are "in" on the scheduling of this game, it can safely be labeled "bunk." If the Cambridge moguls are anxious to play the Tigers they have not made that fact known to Director Clevenger or Coach Miller.

The probabilities are that the Kansas officials have done about as much negotiating as Missouri's men have done. If any team in the Missouri Valley Conference was to play Harvard, Oklahoma would be most likely to draw the assignment due to the fact that she won the Valley championship this year.

WALLACE OF AMES IS ALL-VALLEY CENTER
An All-Valley football selection in a Chicago publication of Sunday, has as center on the first team "Polly" Wallace of Ames. The writer pays a great tribute to the Ames center whose playing has been a feature of the Valley for two years. The article, in part, claims that Wallace was the "only noteworthy performer in the Mississippi Valley," wherein we disagree with the critic as will any sports writer or coach in the Valley who watched for two years "Chuck" Lewis, Missouri's captain, yesterday named captain on the All-Valley team selected by coaches and officials.

OKLAHOMA MAY BE HOME-COMING OPPONENT
"Fine," "couldn't be better" and numerous other exclamations were heard when it became known in Columbia that Oklahoma would return to Columbia again next fall, and as the probable Homecoming opponent.

The Sooners in their short sojourn in the Missouri Valley Conference have made friends everywhere they have gone. Benny Owens appreciating the dilemma which the local authorities were placed in by peculiarities of their schedule for next year, engineered a deal whereby his eleven might return here next fall. It is true that Kansas also assisted by going back to Norman for the second time in succession, yet there is reason to believe that Missouri would be a better drawing card at Norman than Kansas.

While there is no official confirmation of the Homecoming game being with Oklahoma there is little doubt but what this arrangement will be completed. The Sooners will make a great drawing card for next fall's return of the old grads.

First plans for next year were to get Washington to come to Columbia for the second time, returning the favor the east and west subdivision line of said section eight (8); thence south 0 degrees 15 minutes east 3854 feet to a point (3) the center of the Columbia and Fayette Road; thence, with the center of said road; south 70½ degrees east 5413 feet to a point (4), south 70 degrees east 1336 feet to a point (5), south 65 degrees 40 minutes east 737 feet to the beginning, and containing two hundred and forty acres; which said action is returnable on the first day of the next regular term of this court to be held at the court house in the City of Columbia, Boone County, Missouri, on MONDAY, JANUARY 3, 1921 when and where you may appear and answer or otherwise defend such action; otherwise plaintiff's petition will be taken as confessed and judgment rendered accordingly.
